

Expressions of Interest: Geelong Art Gallery Inc. Board

Geelong Gallery mission	Geelong Gallery was established in 1896 and is one of Australia’s leading art galleries, with a magnificent collection of Australian and European painting, sculpture, printmaking and decorative arts dating from the 18th century to today. We contribute to the life and well-being of the city by fostering strong community engagement with the excellence of our collection, inspiring exhibitions and lifelong learning programs.
Geelong Gallery strategic pillars	Geelong Gallery is impactful through four strategic pillars that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Promote artistic and cultural advancement in the community thus making Geelong a more liveable city;</li> <li>• Bring economic benefit to the region through tourism arising from exhibitions and events;</li> <li>• Provide life-long, inclusive learning for everyone;</li> <li>• Aims to expand facilities to provide greater access to collections and landmark exhibitions, thus underpinning the delivery of all pillars.</li> </ul>
Position description	Geelong Gallery is one of Australia’ oldest and most important art museums. The Gallery Board seeks expressions of interest from people suitably qualified to contribute to the Board’s Governance, Strategic Planning and Fundraising roles. The Board is interested in diverse skills and is an equal opportunity Board. Your interest in the arts, and your capacity to commit time are crucial. The Board meets nine times per annum, in addition to one Strategic Planning workshop. The Board and Management are supported by six sub-committees and it is expected that each Board member serves on at least two sub-committees each of which meets six times per annum. Members of the Board must be or must become Members of the Gallery and can serve only three terms of three years.
