

Geelong Gallery Youth digital project—trainee overview

Are you interested in showcasing your passion for the visual arts and talent for content creation? Geelong Gallery is keen to meet you. We're looking for two enthusiastic young people to help connect their cohort to Geelong Gallery.

Two Youth digital project—trainee roles are currently available for 12-month tenures. Mentored and supported by Geelong Gallery's Deputy Director and Marketing & Communications Coordinator, the trainees will work together to scope and create their individual projects.

Geelong Gallery's purpose is to provide an experience of art that will enrich people's lives. We promote equity, diversity, inclusion, access and lifelong learning.

Project purpose

To caretake and curate our youth-focused Instagram platform for Geelong Gallery, GG Connected: targeting audiences aged 16 to 25. This element of the role builds on the work of our past youth digital trainees in 2021 and 2022.

You may also consider collaboratively developing and executing an idea for a new Gallery digital campaign. This is your chance to build something from scratch and put your stamp on our Gallery's history and community engagement.

The project invites you to interpret the Geelong Gallery collection and exhibitions program through your own lens, to share what YOUR Gallery within YOUR diverse community means to you, and your contemporaries, peers and generation.
